

Matching Cards

When Alma travels to Puerto Rico to visit family, she learns a lot of new Spanish words. You can have some ah-MAY-zing fun using the cards below to play a matching or memory game. After printing the cards, cut out each one and match the pictures on the cards to see the words in English and Spanish.

To play a memory game, lay the cards upside down in rows. Pick up one card, then pick up another. If it's a match, keep the pair. If it's not a match, return the card to its place. If you're playing by yourself, try finding another match. If you're playing the game with a friend, it's their turn to try to find a match. Keep playing until all of the matches are found.
